

Roosevelt.

Roosevelt, leader of our nation,
Spurning foes and fretted ways,
Shows a righteous indignation
For a cause in these dread days.
He inspires a valiant people
Stalwart souls from prairies, fen,
Ring the bells in each high steeple
Summon ladies, gentlemen,
To enroll for our great nation,
As the decades glide along
Arbiter and inspiration
Roosevelt known in lore and song.

Roosevelt, sufferer, through hours
Spurning soon, a low sick-bed
Phoenix like, arose to powers,
Yeomanry, arisen, led.
We invite the history makers
Summon each to use a pen
To expose a host of fakirs,
Erring Democratic men!
What inspiring revelation
Is this human dynamo
Anti Third Term delegation
Now is fretted, tired, and slow!
